"TRANSFORMATION: THE CHANGE BEGINS WITH ME"

From the Minister's Desk

Transformation: The change begins with me

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:1-2)

Within this verse we find a fundamental truth: the need for change. I believe we should make the necessary changes in our lives to be better people for the Lord. Wouldn't you agree?

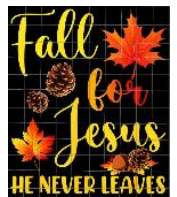

While it is sad but true, many people do not see the need for a change. They have become comfortable and complacent with their spiritual growth and no longer welcome any opportunities for further growth. How many times have you heard someone say; "This is just the way I am." This is the cry of many who truly feel it is a matter of impossibility for them to change or grow.

Every child of God must believe that they can become the strong Christian that God intends for all of us to be. In Philippians 4:13 we are reminded that we can..."do all things through Christ that strengthens me." Every day we should be striving to become less and less like ourselves, while becoming more our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. This thought is reflected in Romans 8:29 where Paul said we are to... "conform to the image of his son." If this is to take place, a transformation must take place on the inside that is truly evident on the outside.

The question maybe asked; "How does this transformation take place? I believe the apostle Paul gives us the answer. In Galatians 2:20 he says; "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh, I now live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." This requires a daily dying to selfish attitudes, desires and motives. It also involves putting the needs of others before our own (Phil.2:3-4). Transformation continues through daily communion with our heavenly Father in prayer (1 Thess.5:17); daily bible study (2 Tim. 2:15); regular worship and bible class attendance (Heb.10:25) and sharing the word of God with others (Matthew 28:19-20). May these things and others help us to make the transformation in our lives that will always give honor and glory to our heavenly Father.

“Strokes, heart attacks, sudden deaths: Does America understand the long-term risks of catching COVID?”

Submitted by: Beatrice Ramsey

America needs to wake up—now. A recent Kaiser Family Foundation survey shows that two thirds of U.S. adults have no intention of getting the updated booster shots anytime soon, yet rampant breakthrough infections and more immune-evading variants are on the horizon.

“The degree of immune escape and evasion is amazing right now, crazy,” Yunlong Richard Cao, an immunologist at Peking University in Beijing told Nature a few days ago. In a preprint, which has not been peer-reviewed, Cao et al. found that new subvariants like BQ.1.1, CA.1, and especially XBB, are the most antibody-evasive strains to date. “These results suggest that current herd immunity and BA.5 vaccine boosters may not provide sufficiently broad protection against infection,” they wrote. In our country, 300 to 400 COVID deaths are already occurring every day. Cases are rising in some European countries such as France, Germany, Italy and Belgium. “We are clearly at the start of a winter [COVID-19] wave,” said Karl Lauterbach, Germany’s federal minister of health, in a press briefing. Germany has just implemented new rules requiring mask-wearing on trains, local buses, as well as in hospitals, nursing homes, and doctors’ offices.

The road ahead is going to be rough until we can develop a variant-proof vaccine, approve nasal vaccines to help block infection at the port of entry and reduce transmission, and develop better treatments. As the virus becomes more immune-evasive, our arsenal is shrinking, not expanding, despite what the CDC and political leaders may claim. The monoclonal antibody strategy, for instance, proved ineffective as the virus outsmarted us and kept evolving, rapidly rendering many monoclonal therapies obsolete shortly after they were approved.

We have plenty still to understand about long COVID, particularly in the vaccinated population, but Al-Aly estimates that 8% to 12% of vaccinated people with breakthrough infections may develop long COVID. Around the world, an estimated 145 million people are suffering from the condition, cases of which rose more than 300% in 2021.

We need to do a much better job preventing mass infections and reinfections, fast-tracking research, funding new treatments for victims, and developing a coordinated response, both nationally and internationally. Producing universal coronavirus and nasal vaccines and drugs to minimize long COVID risk is a top priority. As Al-Aly puts it, “We need ambitious policies to get ahead of this virus and the pandemic.

”As a country, we’re clearly tired of masking, boosting, and COVIDing in general. But as exhausting as this march has already been, we’re nowhere near the finish line. We must stop pretending otherwise.

Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. James 5:16
