Nutrition: Life Sustaining Requirements --- Part 2

There are 6 basic nutrients that can help support your health, even in small amounts. PROTEIN: provides the building blocks of the body and not just for muscles only. Every cell from bone to skin and hair contains protein. It is used primarily for growth, health and body maintenance. All your hormones, antibodies and other important substances contains protein. CARBOHYDRATES: acts as an energy source, helps control blood glucose and insulin metabolism. It is very unique because in the mouth chewing with saliva begins breaking down carbohydrates into glucose, which is used for energy upon consumption. FATS: the most concentrated source of energy, providing double amounts of calories per gram. It insulate our bodies and provide shock absorption to protect different body parts, such as palms of our hands, the soles of our feet and around internal organs. Our cell membranes are made of fat and our brains are 60% fat.

VITAMINS and MINERALS are essentials for bodily functions, such as helping to fight infections, wound healing, making our bones strong and regulating hormones. vitamins and minerals can cause toxicity if taken in large amounts. WATER is absolutely crucial for every system in your body. You can go weeks without food, but you can't last more than a few days without water. It is also the main thing you are made of. About 62 % of your body weight is water.

Remember Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego.
God didn't put out
the fire He just put Jesus in there with them.
It's not about God
"putting out your fires"
Its about who is in there with you.

"So they are no longer two,
but one flesh: Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."
Matthew 19:6
