Grown and Evangelizing (Part 4)

A Mature Witness Shares the Gospel in Every Circumstance

As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.

(Philippians 1:13)

The first characteristic of a mature witness is that he shares the gospel in every circumstance. Here we see Paul, who has already been in prison for two years in Caesarea, imprisoned in Rome and still sharing the gospel. Look at the superlatives he uses in Philippians 1:13. It says that it has become clear throughout the "whole palace guard" and to "everyone else" that his chains are in Christ. Everybody was hearing the gospel through Paul during his imprisonment. We learn more about his situation in Acts 28:16, 30-31. It says,

When we got to Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him...For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. Boldly and without hindrance he preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul was under house arrest—guarded by a soldier all day. While there, people came to see him all the time. Obviously, having an apostle of Paul's stature in Rome became very well known.

“6 Places You’re Most Likely to Catch Coronavirus” (Pt.2)

1. Bars and Restaurants

At any indoor spot, Dr. Lushniak suggests taking stock of what public health recommendations are being followed. Ask yourself, “Are people wearing masks? Is the six-foot rule being applied? Is it crowded with people?” he says. It’s best to remove yourself from any situation that doesn’t abide by expert-approved safeguards. Experts also recommend following these guidelines when dining at restaurants.

Bars and restaurants could lose their not-so-desirable top spot on this list if they check for vaccination status among patrons, says Dr. Horovitz. “Restaurants will definitely be safer if all staff and patrons are required to show proof of vaccination, as is the case in New York City and many other cities,” he says. “[Regardless], you still should wear a mask until you sit down at the table.”

2. Gyms and fitness centers

Gyms and fitness centers are certainly still hot spots, says Dr. Horovitz. Experts point to insufficient ventilation, large class sizes, and intensity of the workouts as the reason for the high infection rates here. In two reports by the CDC, scientists linked dozens of COVID-19 cases to two gyms in Chicago and Hawaii. Fifty-five gym members were infected in Chicago and 21 were infected in Hawaii after attending fitness classes with a contagious person who did not show symptoms.
